TRADITION . . . MEMORIES

QUEEN DIANA FINDERS

AND EXCITEMENT,

IS ALWAYS

The unseen work which goes into the building of the floats for the Homecoming parade is depicted here by Judy Smith and Vicki Scott.

"Buster" Avenson and Jerry Nicol cheerfully rendered their services to the Journalism Class Float.

The dance, this year centered around the theme "Fall Escapades", is one of the many traditions surrounding Homecoming.

"Like man! Way out!" was the senior class float.

LINKED WITH FOOTBALL, THE SPORT,

Homecoming game tension grows as Huskies fight to thrilling 0-0 tie with the Decorah Vikings

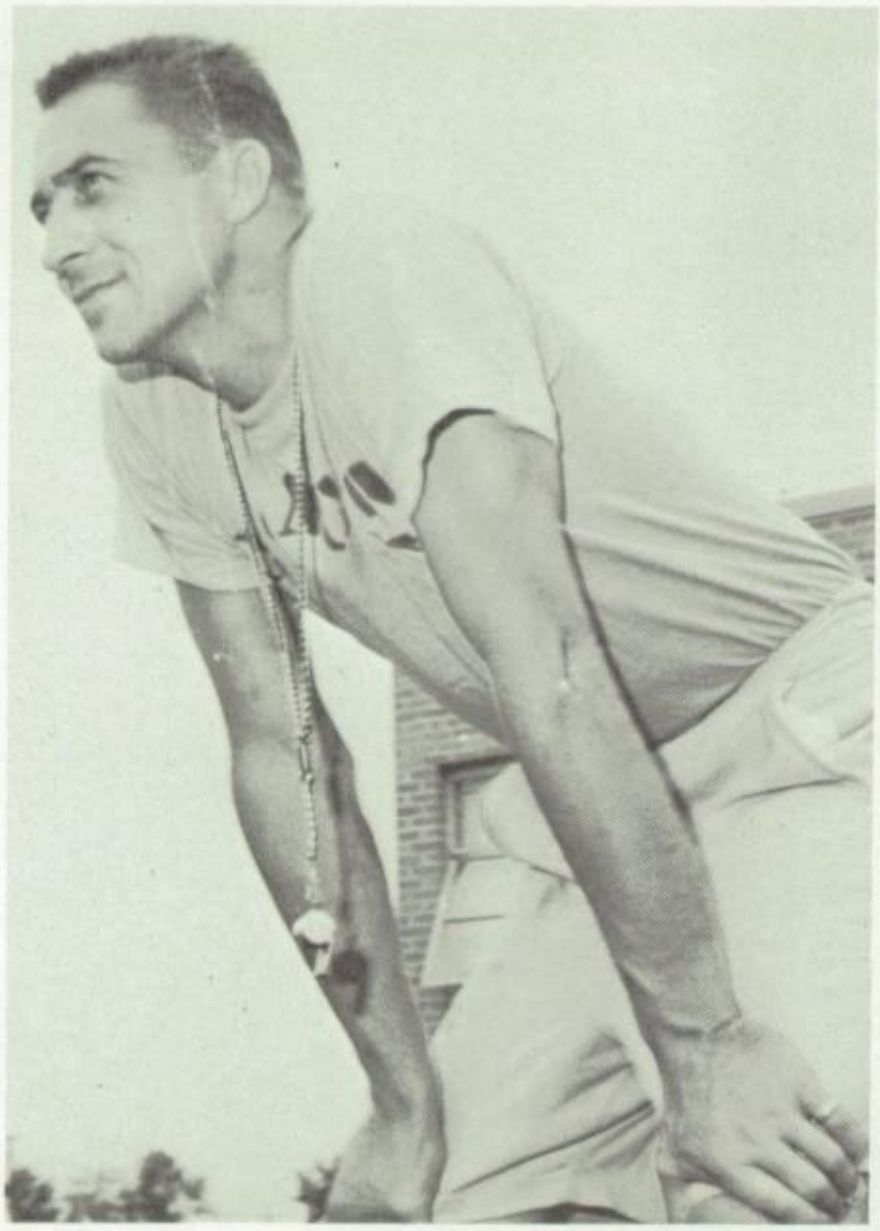
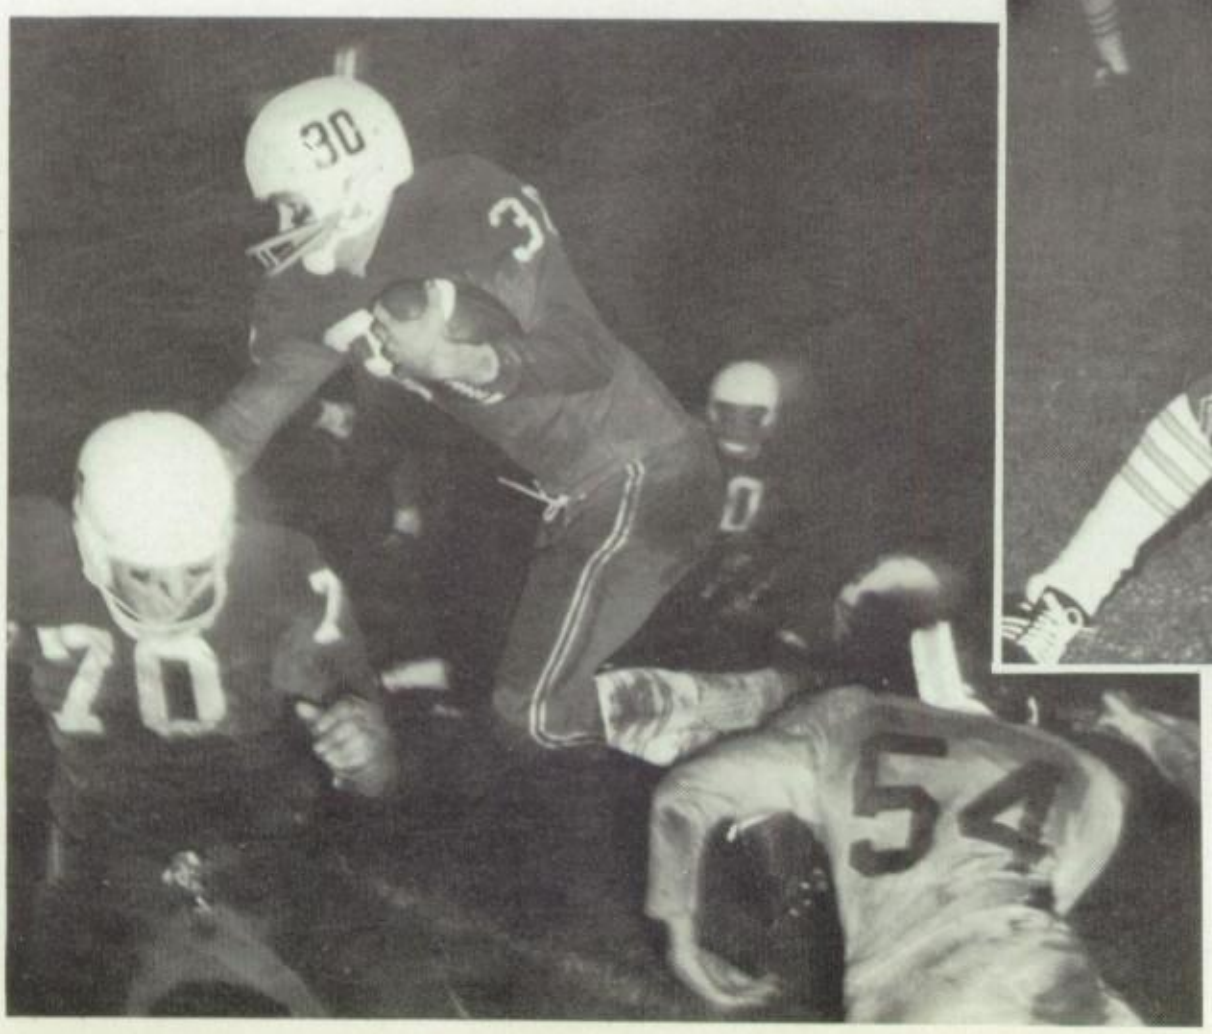
AND THE READY,



Coach Anderson, with assistant Coach Stevens, enjoyed his most successful season since coming to Oelwein. With experience and speed, the Huskies compiled a 5-2-1 record.

It's the end of the line for this Mustang back as Jim Tafolla and Ed Molinsky team together to make the stop.

With tackle, Dick Snyder, leading the way, Ken Latham takes the high-road as the Huskies whip Waverly 7-6.



THE VICTOR AND THE VANQUISHED.

Tom Linder proves you can't keep a "good man down".

Fleet Junior halfback, Jack King heads for the "promised land".

THROUGH THE YEAR.

Pep Club's money raising project this year was selling sweat shirts with the school emblem printed on them. They were a real success!

WONDERFUL SHOW BUSINESS:

"Billy, I have something to tell you." Julie Jordon (Paulette Lutz) is shown here talking to Billy Bigelow (David Brownell).

Billy Bigelow is seen talking to his daughter Louise (Pat Fox) when he returns to earth to see her graduate from high school.

Dave Brownell, Paulette Lutz, Carolyn Schmidtke, and Larry Rehlander get a 'thank you' from the audience as the final curtain closes.

FIRST "CAROUSEL" . . . THEN

While the curtain falls on the graduating class of "Carousel" the chorus sings, "When You Walk Through a Storm."

Martha Hedrick or Carrie Snow tells the roustabouts to "git away," in a scene from "Carousel."

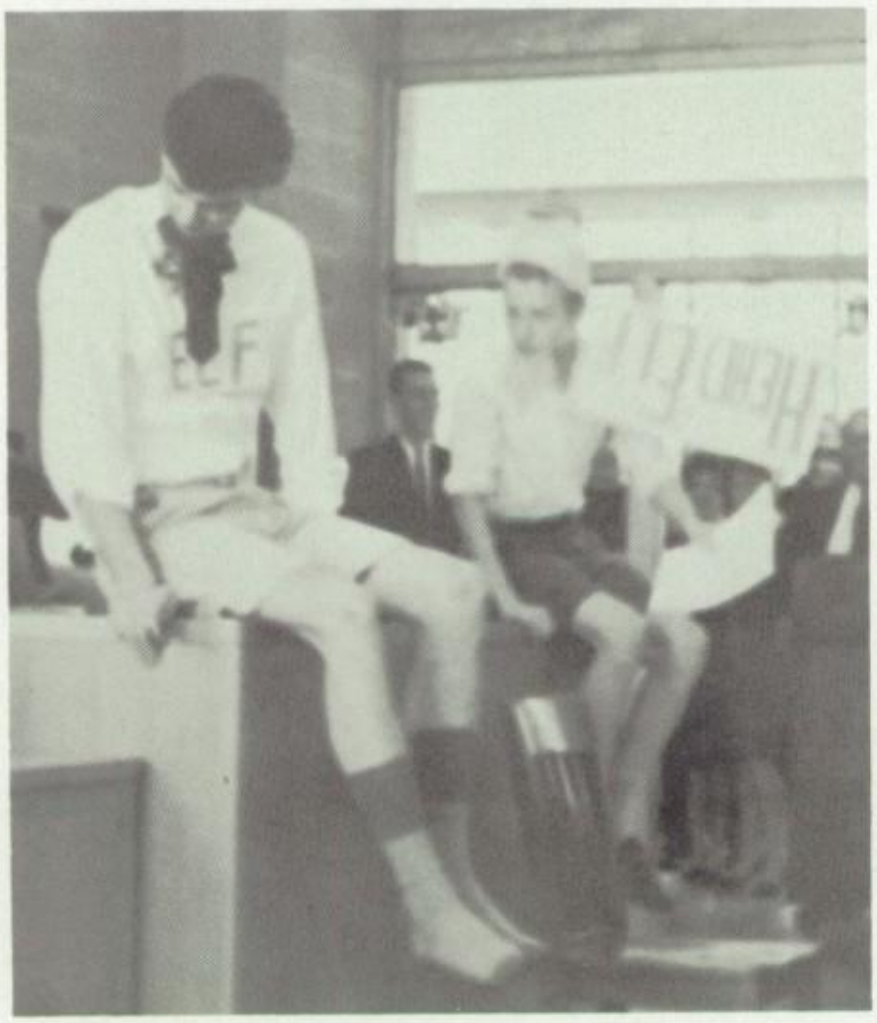
ITS PARTIES,

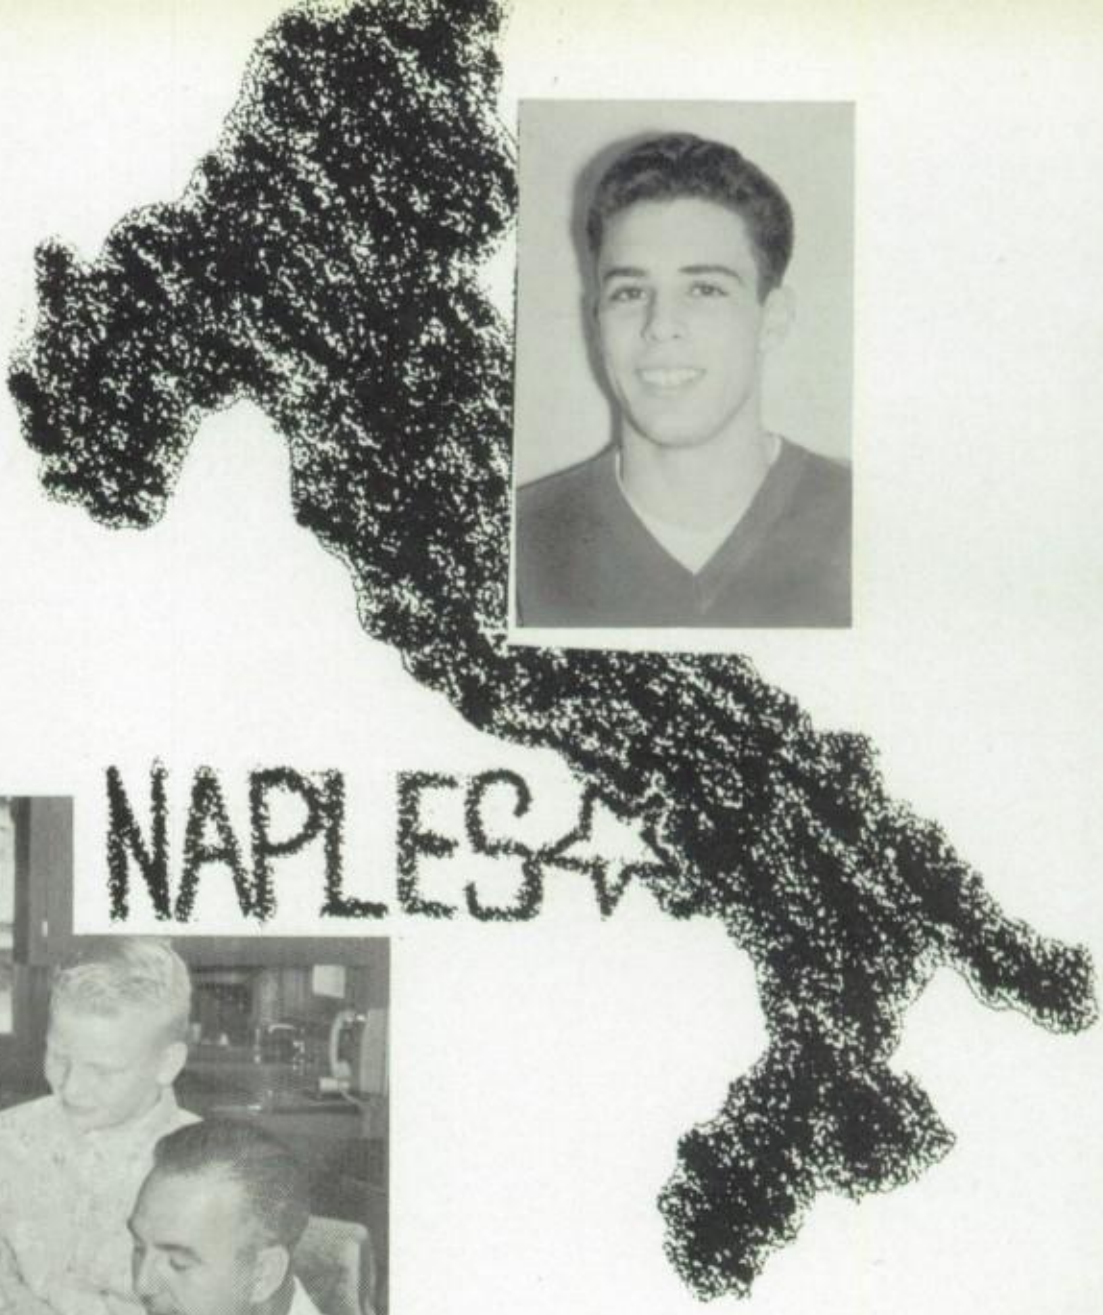
The gay Christmas party is honored with a speech, about the festivities in Italy, by our Foreign Student, Brunello Morrica.



Featuring the "long and short of it", the Elves, LeRoy Matthias and Norman Coonrod read letters to Santa Claus.

The Girl's Trio added strains of "O Holy Night", with echoes of the same behind the reading of the Christmas Story.

AND ITS . .



Brunello Morrica was our Foreign Exchange Student from Naples, Italy, who stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hill.

His subjects required a lot of studying,

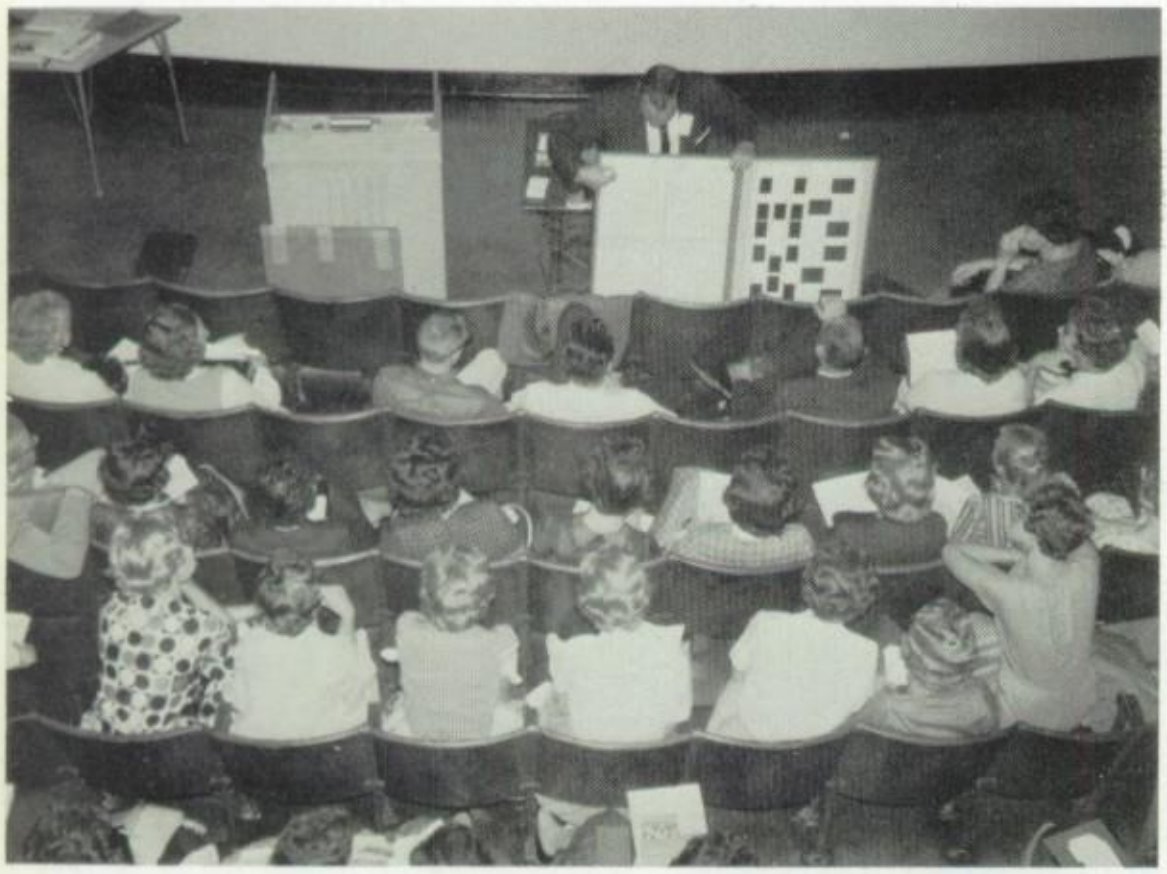
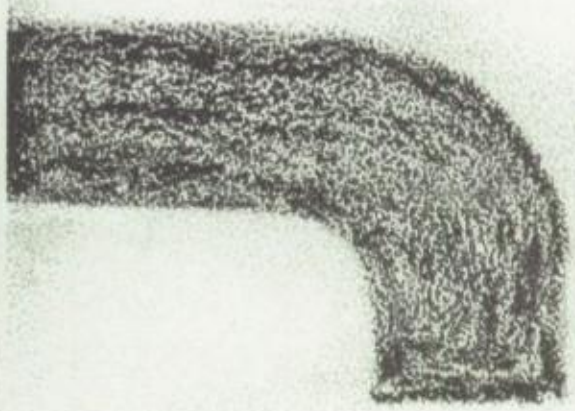
ANNUAL STAFF IS HARD AT WORK



This meeting marked the beginning of the production of the 1962 Annual. It was the Inter-Collegiate Press Yearbook Workshop held here in Oelwein, in September. Staffs from miles around, and many high schools were in attendance.



John Campbell, editor, looks on as Mr. Leet explains how to make a layout, the blueprint of the yearbook.

ALL YEAR LONG.

nual Staff is not all work and no play, here the staff l the officers take a break before they go back to ir work of turning out the Annual.

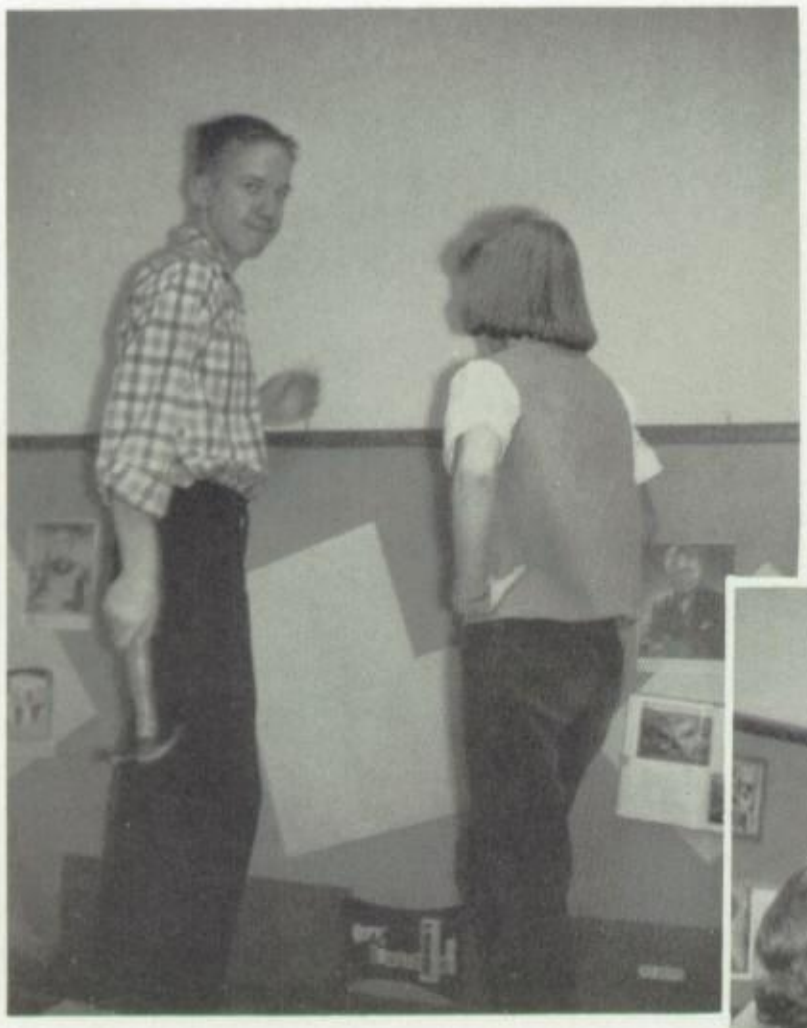
Susan Paul, assistant editor, mails the final layouts into the company in order to meet the deadline.

O.C.H.S. HAS ITS ARTISTS,



Not everything in an artists life is of beauty and labor free; here Ralph Flower and Betty Emery are putting up a display in the art room.

Mr. Leet explains raised block printing to his students in the O.C.H.S. fourth hour art class.

Getting ready to print is Kay Kuper. She is stirring silk screen ink as Dan Molinsky gives his approval to a completed print.
